

Council for Learning and Leadership Development.

The Council for Learning and Leadership Development (CLLD) provides a network for experienced practitioners of learning, leadership, and organization development to engage with peers and renowned thought leaders, share emerging theory and organizational practices, and create real-time solutions.

Our purpose is to enhance the strategic and competitive position of member organizations through a combination of meetings, research, and access to custom information services. We provide evidence-based research, networking, and collaborative learning opportunities that are a strategic resource for Canada's learning and leadership development executives.

Who Should Join

CLLD is for experienced learning, leadership development, talent management, and organization development practitioners from a wide variety of industries and sectors across Canada.

It is best suited to those with overall responsibility for learning, leadership, and/or organization development strategy and policy in their organization.

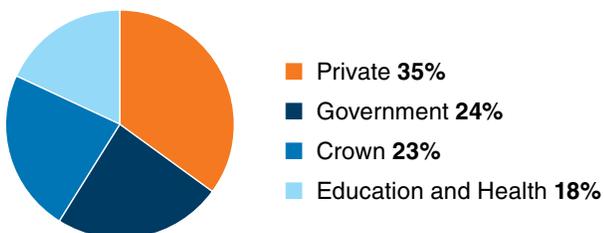

Our Members Include

- Director, Organization Development
- Development Leader
- Senior Program Director, Talent Management Strategies
- Director, Culture, Learning, and Employee Experience
- Principal, Professional Development
- Manager, Learning and Development

Provinces Represented

Industry Representation

Member Organizations

- 3M Canada
- Alberta Health Services
- Algonquin Power and Utilities
- ArcelorMittal Dofasco
- Bluewater Health
- Business Development Bank of Canada
- Canada Post
- City of Edmonton
- Farm Credit Canada
- Graymont
- Liquor Control Board of Ontario
- Office of the Auditor General of Canada
- Public Services and Procurement Canada
- PwC Management Services
- Sun Life Financial Trust
- The City of Calgary
- Toronto District School Board

Key Objectives

- Provide a forum for learning, leadership, and organization development professionals to connect with peers from a wide variety of sectors and geographic areas.
- Encourage learning by providing engaging and interactive closed-door sessions with speakers of national and international calibre.
- Facilitate discussions and debates that advance knowledge and collective thinking, identify new opportunities or initiatives, and share knowledge of innovative practices.
- Ensure meeting themes and speakers are relevant and of value by engaging the member-based Advisory Committee.

2017–18 Meetings

November 2–3, 2017

1.5 days, Toronto ON

February 27, 2018

1 day, concurrent sessions in Ottawa ON and Edmonton AB

May 30–31, 2018

2 days, joint meeting with the Council on Workplace Health and Wellness in Calgary AB

Cost of Membership

The fee for a one-year corporate membership is $5,400. (Unchanged from last year!)

“ Our contemporary context requires modern municipal corporations that can constantly evolve to respond to dynamic change. At the City of Edmonton, we believe that this means we must continue to develop into a learning organization. Membership in the Council for Learning and Leadership Development helps us stay abreast of new research and practices and offers us pragmatic tools, insight from inspiring thought leaders, and access to a broad network of peer practitioners. These resources help us design and implement organizational development strategies that ensure we provide valuable and relevant services to the citizens of Edmonton.”

John Wilson, Corporate Culture Strategist, City of Edmonton, and CLLD Advisory Committee Member

CONTACT

Chantal Pye

Administrative and Meetings Coordinator
Learning, Leadership, and Organization Research
The Conference Board of Canada
613-526-3280 ext. 425
pye@conferenceboard.ca

www.conferenceboard.ca/networks/cclld