

Perspectives on colorectal cancer care pathways in Ontario and Quebec

Moderated discussion with...

Bill Evans
Professor Emeritus,
Department of Oncology,
McMaster University

Gerald Batist
Director, McGill Centre for Translational Research in Cancer

Eva Villalba
Executive Director,
Quebec Cancer
Coalition

Barry Stein
President and CEO,
Colorectal Cancer Canada
(moderator)

The Conference
Board of Canada

Acknowledgement: This webinar and underlying research has been sponsored by VBHC Canada

Lead project sponsors: Amgen, Pfizer, Roche

VBHC Canada Partners and Collaborators

3M Canada Company

Amgen

Astra Zeneca

BD

Biogen

Canadian Dental Association

Medtronic

Pfizer

Roche

Canadian Institute for Health
Information

Healthcare Excellence Canada

CorHealth Ontario

Diabetes Action Canada

Quebec Cancer Coalition

Highlights - opportunities to improve colorectal cancer (CRC) care delivery

- Standardization of CRC care: variation in CRC care delivery persists
- Patient-centric care: existing care pathways appear more healthcare provider-centric
- Value assessment: patient reported outcomes and cost-related data are being collected, to various degrees, by individual institutions
- COVID-19 pandemic: affected all aspects of CRC care pathway, but also led to quick transition to virtual care delivery.